ABOUT ME

A 35-year-old FLE/FOS teacher specializing in international educational cooperation. I hold a Master's 1 degree in FLE/FOS and a Master's 2 degree in Languages, Cultures, and International Affairs, and I have taught and coordinated educational projects in Asia and Africa (Pakistan, Rwanda, China). With extensive experience in teaching, developing training programs, organizing cultural events, and preparing students for DELF/DALF certifications, I am eager to put my skills to work for your organization.

HOBBIES AND INTERESTS

Popular Culture

• Strong interest in popular culture, primarily in film, TV series, music, internet culture, and comics (Asian, American, and European). I enjoy using it as a teaching tool.
• I follow trends in popular culture through cultural studies, analyses of geopolitical impacts, and the impact on society.

Literature

• Reading the great classics of Western literature.
• Listening to dramatized versions of literary classics in podcast format (e.g., INA)

Sports

• I've been surfing since childhood; it helps me stay calm during stressful times and also sharpens my concentration and ability to anticipate.
• I enjoy hiking and brisk walking, which help me stay in shape and boost my creativity.
